

Meet the Team

The foundation of CLiC's Colleague on Call service is human connection. We foster relationships through one-on-one visits and gatherings. We're library trend advisors, skill teachers, library project supporters, and—most of all—listeners.

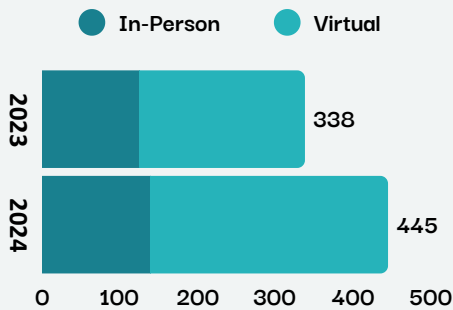

The best part: our help is FREE to rural and small libraries of all types.

Chelsea Coleman, Colleague on Call Consultant- East

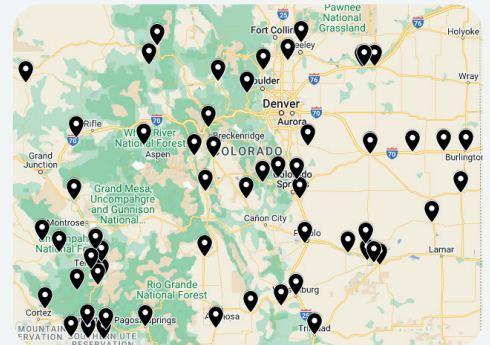

Winnie DuBois, Talent Development Consultant

Anna Szczepanski, Colleague on Call Consultant - West

Consultations

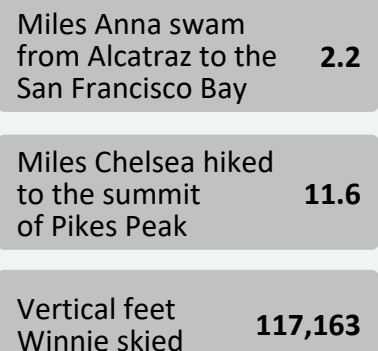

Libraries Visited

Library Projects

Personal Accomplishments

Team Talent Development

CLiC's Virtual Winter Workshop (February)*
 Children and Teens' Services (CATS) Workshop (March)*
 CLiC & Connect In-Person Workshops (April & May)*^
 Mountains & Plains Library Association Conference (May)*
 HESTLEdCon (June)
 CALCON (September)
 ATD Coaching Certificate (September)
 CLiC E-Resources Conference (October)
 AspenCat Con (October)*^
 Rural Library Network eSummit (December)
 Connectors Summit (December)

*Anna presented ^Chelsea presented

On the Road

24,099 miles

“

Anna was very helpful and informative through the process of hiring a library director. Her assistance has been invaluable.

- Library District Trustee

”

“

Chelsea did a wonderful job giving me tools and skills to use. As well as keeping me interested in what she was presenting.

- Library staff member

”

“

I learned SO MUCH about effective engagement strategies from Winnie.

- Virtual Winter Workshop presenter

”

Coffee

1 million cups